PRIVACY STATEMENT

The new data protection regulations (GDPR) came into force in May 2018. We now require your consent for how we use your information.

Tick this box if you consent to allowing Cheltenham U3A to use the information you have supplied for legitimate U3A membership purposes, including: (see over)

- Contacting you on U3A business and to make you aware of U3A events.
- Being used by the group leaders of any groups that you join.
- Sending your names and addresses to the company that prints and distributes our Newsletter and the company that oversees the distribution of the magazines Third Age Matters and Sources.
- Reminding you when your annual subscription is due.

Your data will be held securely and used only for membership purposes in accordance with Data Protection Regulations. You are advised to read our full Privacy Policy for more detail.

You can request to see what data we hold for you, to have email and/or phone number(s) deleted, or to withdraw your consent at any time by contacting the Membership Secretary.

Return the form and cheque to Membership Secretary:
